

The Corporation of the County of Middlesex Notice of Service Disruption

Please be advised the elevator located at the Middlesex County Building at 399 Ridout St. North London, Ontario, is out of service. A date on how long the elevator will remain out of service has not yet been identified.

Services will continue to be offered at the Middlesex County Building during this service disruption. Persons with accessibility concerns may access services via phone, email or virtual meeting.

The County of Middlesex is committed to providing a barrier-free environment for all stakeholders, including clients, employees, job applicants, suppliers and any visitors who enter the premises, work for the County, access information provided by the County, or use the County's goods and services. The County will work to remove the barriers that limit persons with disabilities from employment, accessing of goods and services, the built environment/public spaces and information and communication through the implementation of accessibility standards.

Please do not hesitate to contact Legislative Services staff should you require additional information or accommodation at clerk@middlesex.ca

DATED at the County of Middlesex offices, London, Ontario, this 15th day of July, 2024.
